

FOLLOWED LEAD OF A DEMOCRAT

Uncle Joe Fell into the Ranks While Macon Helped to Defeat Embassy Bill.

ECONOMY IS URGED

SPECIAL TO THE NEWS.
Washington, March 2.—Uncle Joe Cannon of Illinois and Representative Tamm of Minnesota, horse leaders under normal conditions, joined the privates in the ranks today and followed the lead of Representative Macon, the Arkansas Democrat, who with the assistance of his Republican allies, defeated the bill proposing to authorize the secretary of state to purchase or erect an embassy, legation and consular buildings abroad. It was a field day for Mr. Macon and other Democrats for it was the first time in many days that they had tasted the fruits of victory. The measure was brought up in the house by Representative Lowden of Illinois, who reported it to the committee on foreign affairs. It was supported by such prominent members as Representative Longworth of Ohio, Denby of Michigan and Shirley of Kentucky, while Representative Mann, the official "objector" introduced no opposition. Uncle Joe and Mr. Tamm fought the bill on grounds of economy. It is generally conceded that the house is in no temper at this time to enter upon new policies involving the expenditure of public money.

REAL ESTATE BOARD HAS A LUNCHEON MEETING

Ten members of the real estate board of Canton lunched at the Courtland hotel Wednesday and discussed various questions involved in local realty circles, and for the betterment of property in the city. There was no regular business session, all matters being disposed of during luncheon. Attorney J. L. Robb, president of the board, ruled upon the receipt of motions, and announced the following committees for the year: Arbitration, D. A. Smith, W. J. Foy, Norman Ruff; membership, T. K. Harris, Mark Hamilton and W. N. Zettler; auditing, Harry Fife, J. C. Harmon and J. D. Barry. The committee will work in conjunction with the executive officers.

C. A. Dougherty and J. L. Piper were elected members of the board of directors. Luncheon meetings will be held semi-monthly. Mayor Turnbull and Civic Directors Dunwoody and Herbert were invited to attend the next meeting. President Robb read a communication from the Cleveland realty board, which invited any member of the local board to attend the Cleveland meetings, which are held every Wednesday at the Chamber of Commerce.

SEVENTY MILES IN ELEVEN HOURS

"Uncle John" Richardson arrived in Canton last night after a long and perilous journey from Cambridge, O. Cambridge is about seventy miles from Canton—not as the crow flies, but as the trains run when they don't have to swim—and it is not ordinarily much of a task to get out of that dry territory. But this time it was different. It required eleven hours time and the services of six steam railroads and one interurban electric road to accomplish the journey. This illustrates how great are the attractions of Canton when one will brave such inconveniences and danger to reach it.

LIMA.—Mrs. John Maxwell, her sister, Lenna Myers, son Robert, and Miss Edith Slagle, of Defiance, a guest, ate heartily of French canned peas and nearly died of ptomaine poisoning.

AKRON.—The Akron Democratic club endorsed Governor Harmon for re-nomination and re-election and expressed supreme faith in his efficiency, ability and fearlessness.

BELLEFONTAINE.—While keeping vigil at the bedside of his sick mother, who is eighty-seven years old, John Roberts, sixty-nine years old, was found dead seated in his chair.

Disease attacks only those Who are susceptible to it, Because of a weakened Condition of the body— Generally due to wrong food. THREE DAVENPORTS ARE BIG CIRCUS FEATURE Clever Trio of Bareback Riders and Balancers and Their Educated Dog Are a Hit.

The three Davenports' sensational ring act is one of the big feature acts at the Elks' circus.

There is a man, two clever girls, a dog and two horses in the act. Mr. Davenport starts out the act by turning a flip-flop on one of the horses. He follows up the same stunt on two horses, going from one to another. The girls come in for their share of the applause by leaping from the ring onto the backs of the horses in regular order. About this time the dog, with almost human intelligence, makes his debut. He jumped onto the horse and off again several times, adding an exciting finish to a sensational act.

The Davenports have done bareback stunts with a number of large circuses. Both of the women are clever and daring riders, and having attractive faces, they naturally make a big hit with the crowds nightly.

"ISRAEL" THE GREATEST PLAY THIS SEASON.

A play of tremendous force and said to be the author's masterpiece is Henry Bernstein's "Israel," which for the past two months has been creating a great big sensation among regular players and others during its run at the Criterion theater, New York. Bernstein's "The Thief" and "Samson," are already familiar to theatergoers and both have been accepted as remarkable plays. His "Israel," shows the same wonderful constructive ability, for while surprise follows surprise in quick succession, the intense interest is fully maintained until the final curtain falls. The young French author has told his story in three acts, the first showing the lousing of the Rue Royale club; the second, the apartments of the Duchess of Croissy; and the third, the studio of Tibault of Croissy, the son of the duchess. Foremost among the Jew haters of Paris is young Tibault of Croissy and his principal dislike in all the world is a wealthy Hebrew banker, Justin Gutlieb, who is a member of the Rue Royale club, before the young man was born and who is still a member at the beginning of the story. Tibault has called together a number of his friends, all aristocrats, to see him force the elderly Hebrew to tender his resignation as a member of the club. This is so deeply insulted by Tibault, who is also famous for his duels that a duel becomes imperative. Hearing of this meeting between her son and the Hebrew banker, the Duchess of Croissy, tries by every means in her power to prevent it. She appeals to her son with no success and in her extremity, as a last resort she sends for Gutlieb. And again her efforts are futile. Tibault enters his mother's apartments, just as the banker is leaving, and with white rage demands from his mother an explanation as to the presence of his arch enemy at such a time. In every possible way the duchess tries to avoid the issue and at one time the young man is on the point of leaving his mother apparently satisfied. Yet with his hand on the door a horrible suspicion overcomes him and turning, in a scene of tremendous dramatic power, he forces the frightened hysterical and suffering woman to admit that the man he wishes to kill upon the so-called field of honor is the man who is responsible for his being and that he, Tibault of Croissy, the most vindictive Jew hater in Paris is himself a Hebrew.

The duel follows Tibault merely scratches his adversary and with him pride completely crushed seeks refuge in his own apartments, fully resolved to end it all by putting himself out of the way. The company presenting "Israel," is identical with that which contributed as much to the success of the play during the New York run.

Charles Frohman is to present "Israel" at the Grand Opera House Friday evening, March 4.

ODEON.

Manager Abrams promises the patrons of the Odeon Theatre for the last three days of the present week a better show than was on the boards for the first half and that was considered a cracker-jack. Heading the olio will be found Johnny Walker, the original Scotch comedian, singing his own original songs, "My Military Style," "I'll Wed Her When the Bonnie Heather Blooms," and "You'd Better Come Round in the Morning." La Raub & Scottie, the comedy acrobats, who introduce their little red house, while not coming direct from any Keith house, have got a little something on a good many of them that do. Monahan and Monahan need no introduction to Canton vaudeville patrons, as their past work throughout America has stamped them as the foremost negro dialect singers and comedians in the business. The motion pictures are kept up to their usual high standard and are handled by one of the most competent operators in the state.

RURAL CARRIERS MAY GET INCREASE

Representative Gronna Also Wants Rural Free Delivery Extended to Aid Farmers.

NEW 8-HOUR LAW

Washington, March 2.—The house devoted some time to the consideration of the postoffice appropriation bill which went over without action. Representative Madden of Illinois offered an amendment providing an 8-hour day for postal employees. It was defeated through a point of order made by Representative Weeks of Massachusetts in charge of the bill. Representative Gronna of North Dakota delivered a speech in which he said that the increased cost of living was due in part to the fact that country boys were leaving the farm to live in the city. This had resulted in decreased farm production.

Mr. Gronna urged that larger appropriations be made for the extension of rural free delivery and for increased compensation for rural carriers.

Mr. Weeks announced to the house that the postoffice committee would probably report a bill providing increased compensation for the rural carriers.
